President's Message

I hope all of you were safe during Hurricane Matthew and that damage to your home and property was minimal. We were lucky the storm tracked further East than originally predicted sparing us from experiencing the heaviest winds. Fortunately hurricane season is coming to an end. Fall an activity that is very popular with people who do not feel that regular skiing is lethal enough."

season is upon us, temperatures are cooling and we are approaching the holidays and then - - ski season!

We still have openings on all of our ski trips except Snowmass so check our website for details on Beaver Creek, CO; Banff/Lake Louise, Canada; Sun Valley, ID; and Japan. Come join the fun socializing with fellow club members in the snow-covered mountains and bring a friend.

Also, mark your calendar for our Holiday Party. Details and links are to the right. Once again we will sponsor two charities, Toys for Tots and the Brevard Sharing Center. We ask that you consider bringing a toy and some nonperishable food items to help out others. Oh - and please bring an appetizer, side dish or a homemade dessert. We will provide the wine, beer, turkey and ham.

Cheers, Cal
